

Life on Earth 2: Living and Dying

These optional questions are designed to help you relate this Scriptural Reasoning session to issues in the modern world, particularly those relating to science and technology.

Discussion starters:

What does it mean to live well?

How might these texts inform our approach to death and dying?

What do these texts contribute to discussions on human enhancement or ethical debates over using radical medical interventions to prolong life?

